

Ser/Pronouns/Halloween

Write in Spanish the meaning of these phrases. You can use the word-bank. Remember that “a” can be “un”, “una”, “unos”, or “unas”. It depends on the noun it precedes being masculine, feminine, singular or plural.

Describing your costume:

I am a ghost. _____

We are pizza. _____

You all are police officers. _____

They (Girls) are scientists. _____

You are a monster. _____

He is a vampire. _____

She is a werewolf. _____

I am a lion. _____

You (formal) are a Knight. _____

They (boys) are a car. _____

We (girls) are doctors. _____

You all are (formal) engineers. _____

Miguel and Carmen are the sun and the moon. _____

Fernando is a soccer player. _____

María is a tennis player. _____

Write the appropriate pronoun:

Monica y yo -

Tú y Fernando -

Él y sus (his) amigos-

Ella y María -

Él y Fernando -

Roberta y tú -

Tenista, el sol y la luna, fantasma, policía, pizza, monstruo, científico/ca, caballero, hombre (mujer) lobo, vampiro, coche (or carro), futbolista, ingeniero/a, doctor/ora